JUNIORS GIVE SENIORS PARTY

ELABORATE ENTERTAINMENT IN CARNEGIE IN HONOR OF CLASS OF 1915.

Best Affair of Its Kind Ever Given Here.

The members of the Junior Class entertained in splendid fashion in the Carnegie Library Building in honor of the Seniors last Saturday evening. This social function takes the place of the Junior Prom of many other colleges, and is an annual event at Stetson.

The Eusophian room and the reception hall were beautifully decorated for the occasion with bamboo and flowers and the Stetson colors. The program of the evening consisted of a reception in the hall first and then a sort of "cabaret show" in the Eusophian room. Tables were set for two each and delicate courses of sundry nature were served by six of the charming Freshmen girls.

After the repast, a number of speeches were given. The event of the evening was the crowning of Miss Constance Waterman as May Queen. This was a beautiful ceremony to which Miss Waterman responded in most winning manner with a few well chosen words. The president of the Junior Class, Miss Nell Hathcock addressed a few words of welcome to those present. Mr. Haskins recited one of Riley's excellent poems. Mr. Sales sang a Stetson song of his own composition. Mr. Longstreet gave the farewell address to the Seniors, who are soon to leave us.

Altogether the affair was the best of its kind that has ever been given in the history of the university. The Junior Class outdid itself. Credit is especially due Misses Elliott and Blocker for the success of the function.

TECH DEFEATS SENIOR LAWYERS

Tuesday afternoon the Tech boys added another victory to their series by defeating the Senior Law team by the score of 10 to 3. This game had some real baseball which made it full of enjoyment. The work of Tribble for the lawyers and McBride for the Tech men were features of the game. In the last inning Kanner weakened and Haskins took his place. Hon relieved Hatcher and kept the Lawyers from scoring any more runs.

This makes the Tech team champions of the West Campus and puts them in the Championship series of the entire Campus, and from the outlook of things they will probably come out on top.

STETSON ENGINEERING SOCIETY.

The Stetson Engineering Society will meet next Tuesday night, May 11, in Science Hall. Dean Rasco will deliver a lecture on Contracts, discussing especially where the law points touch the engineering profession.

The Engineering Society invites all law students and all others who are interested, to attend this lecture.

JUNIOR LAWYERS TRIM SENIOR LAW

Last Thursday afternoon the members of the Junior Law Class had little difficulty in disposing of the Senior Law team. The game went along nicely until the third with no hits or runs. But then Pitcher Kanner for the Seniors got into trouble by hitting Sherman and walking Beaulieu. Two inopportune hits (for Kanner) sent over three runs. In the sixth Kanner weakened and two more free passes, coupled with three hits one of them for extra bases, put five scores across.

Merritt for the Juniors was seldom in danger and yielded but four hits and issued no free tickets. In the fifth and seventh he let out two hits each and these with errors gave the enemy their only four runs.

Subtracting the balance from the amount subscribed we can see that baseball this season lacked $75.41 of paying for itself.

No suits were purchased for this year's team.

Out of town games cost more than the receipts for them because we did not have the return game with Ormond.

$50.00 in subscriptions was not paid. Inasmuch as there was no deficit, the committee has not pressed this collection. However, the pledges should be paid in full.

KENT CLUB WINS ANNUAL DEBATE

DEFEATS VARSITY CLUB IN THE ANNUAL INTER-SOCIETY DEBATE.

Haskins and Jennings Chosen to Represent Stetson at Southern

The Annual Inter-Society Debate between the Kent Club and the Varsity Club was held last Friday evening in the law room of Science Hall. Both sides showed lack of careful study, but this was to be expected in view of the fact that scarcely two weeks had been available to study the question.

The subject for the Inter-society Debate is always the same as that which will be debated with Southern College in the Inter-collegiate debate. This gives our team a thoro preparation. But Southern postponed for so long the sending of the question for the debate this year that very little time was left for any study.

However, the debate was lively and full of interest. Jennings probably had the best speech of any of the six debaters. Haskins was probably the best speaker. Winner for the Varsity Club also spoke well. The judges were Rev. Alleyne, Rev. Colebrook, and Miss Denny. Mr. Jordan was to have been another judge, but he was unable to come and Miss Denny kindly consented to serve.

Twelve minutes was given each speaker with five minutes rebuttal for the first speaker on each side. The judges rendered a decision in favor of the negative, the Kent Club defending that side, and selected Mr. Haskins and Mr. Jennings to represent Stetson at the Inter-collegiate Debate at Southern this Friday night. Mr. Kanner of the Kent Club was chosen the alternate.

The Varsity Club team was Winner, Emerson, and Deane. The Kent Club team was Haskins, Kanner and Jennings.

DEBATE WITH SOUTHERN CANCELLED

For absolutely unknown reasons, Southern wires just as we go to press that the debate is cancelled. Rice wrote up here some time ago complaining that we were studying the question before sending him the reply as to which side we should take. Perhaps this action on Stetson's part has peeved his mightiness. If Southern thinks Stetson is a fool and will debate a question without having any time to work it up she is mistaken. We shall try to get the details of the trouble for publication in our next issue.

MAY DAY CELEBRATION.

The girls of the Y. W. C. A. gave a very beautiful and novel entertainment last Saturday afternoon on the university campus. The chief events of the performance were the crowning of Miss Emma Williams as May Queen and a May Pole dance. Sundry maneuvers about the May Pole were indulged in by twenty of Stetson's pretty damsels and a large crowd was present to enjoy the spectacle. Taking advantage of this assembly, the ladies had arranged several booths where ice-cream and other esculent dainties were displayed for small sums of two bits and the like.

PI PHI PLAY.

The young women of the Pi Beta Phi Fraternity will give a play in the university auditorium next Monday evening. This production under the personal direction of Professor Stover bids fair to be one of the best events of the season. It is hoped that a large crowd will come out to patronize the occasion.

ANNUAL SOON WILL BE OUT

The eighth volume of the Stetson Annual "Oshihiyi" will be off the press early next week. This book is the best and largest that has ever been produced at Stetson. The undertaking is a strenuous one. Every Stetson student should purchase a copy.

COLLEGIATE BOARD TO MEET

The members of the Stetson Weekly Collegiate Board are requested to meet in room 5 next Monday afternoon at 3:00 P. M. for the purpose of electing the editor and business manager for this paper for next year.

CLASS BASEBALL STILL GOING

Class baseball has this year been better managed than ever before. Excellent schedules have been arranged and several very interesting games have been staged. The Tech boys seem to have about the best team on the campus. However, it is worthy of note that the Junior Lawyers could defeat any team in school if they were not all outlawed as being Varsity men.

GLEE CLUB GIVES ANNUAL CONCERT

GOOD CROWD HEARS COLLEGE MEN IN VARIED PROGRAM AT AUDITORIUM.

"Serenade" Brings Down House—And Club Too.

The Stetson Glee Club gave its annual concert in the university auditorium Thursday evening. This event has always heretofore occurred in the Fall or early Winter. But for reasons best known to the music faculty, it was postponed this year until too late to have the usual sized audience and too late for the club to take any trips in the State. Two years ago the Glee Club spent the Xmas vacation touring the State and did some good advertising for Stetson.

The boys put on a good show last week. There was a lack of lively songs in the program, however. A college glee club is not supposed to be grand opera. A liberal supply of rollicking airs is more pleasing for the boys and for those who come to hear them. However, the Club sang well and received hearty encores on many numbers.

Professor Guevchenian has worked hard to build up the club and we believe that next year he can put out the best organization that has ever represented Stetson University. There will be a good nucleus of the old men back and there is no reason why the Stetson Glee Club of 1916 cannot be the best ever.

The following are the members of this year's club:—

First Tenors—David Sholtz, and Churchill Goar.

Second Tenors—Wm. Sales, Rudolph Peterson.

First Bases—Harold Shelley, Cyril Connolly.

Second Bases—Ray Griffin, Rubert Longstreet.

SOPH-BUSINESS COLLEGE GAME CALLED BY RAIN

The Sophomores took on the fast Business College nine Wednesday afternoon and at the close of the third inning had them 4—4. If the game could have been finished there was a probability of the Bookkeepers losing. If they had done so it would have tied up the championship of the East Campus in good style. The Freshies beat the Business College. The Business College beat the Juniors. The Juniors beat the Sophomores. And there you have it. The Freshmen have not played any game except the one mentioned so they are an unknown quantity. This called game will be played off at an early date

NEW PROGRAM CLOCK FOR CLASS BELLS

Claude Campbell, the university electrician, has just installed a new clock and sundry apparatus for ringing the class bells in more regular order. The new clock will limit the ringing of the gongs to ten seconds instead of the former customary two minutes.

In addition to the regular class program this new instrument will ring for all meals on Saturday and Sunday. This will be a distinct loss to the university, for not so many of us will now miss breakfasts.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Each June it has been the custom of Stetson to send two or three men to attend the Southern Student Conference held at Black Mountain in North Carolina. The local Y. M. C. A. is working to send the usual delegation to this conference this year. We append a couple of articles from prominent southern educators which describe the value of the conference:

The Blue Ridge Student Conference

—by—
Dr. E. M. Poteat, Pres. Furman University.

For several years I have been a regular attendant at this Conference and I never see the assembling of these young men without a thrill of interest, and as my mind runs out to the colleges they come from all through the Southern States the interest grows deeper. It is still further deepened when these young men settle into the work of the Conference and begin to catch its spirit.

I know not a more wholesome interpretation of religion than is furnished in the class-room work, personal fellowship, inspirational addresses, study in methods, outdoor-sports which are brought together here from year to year. In saneness, in virility, in depth, in happiness, in reach and outlook, in loyalty to Christ—in all these aspects one finds here a full exemplification of the Christian life.

Among the practicable things which one could do for a given school I should choose to undertake to induce a substantial delegation to attend the Conference. I can think of few things more valuable to the total life of a school than sending forward such a delegation to such a place into such experiences.

Appreciation of the Southern Student Conference

—by—
Dr. O. E. Brown of Vanderbilt University.

For many years I have had the privilege of attending the Southern Student Conference, yet each year finds me turning to it with greater zest than ever before. It is truly to me "the greatest student gathering of the South." Its greatness is manifold. It is great as an opportunity for recreation. The Blue Ridge afternoons are too fine to be forgotten. There is something provided that just suits every variety of genuine college men. It is great as a chance for choicest fellowship. When the best get together the climax is reached. Ten days of fellowship with the best students of the whole South can but make red letter days in one's college career. Southern college songs must be heard at Blue Ridge to be given their highest rating. One of the great words of the Southern Student Conference is efficiency. The laws of student leadership are nowhere else more scientifically studied and nowhere else more forcefully exhibited. Here are the men who are molding the college life of the South. The conference is a veritable clearing house of Association resources.

The Student Conference is greatest of all as an opportunity for discovery. Many men here rediscover their Invincible Friend in the fight for character. Many men are helped toward the discovery of the life-calling wherein they can count most in furthering "the glory of God and the good of mankind." Here it is that hosts of students discover the secret of greatness in the resolve:—"I will heartily lay me a-hold on the greatness of God."

MISS DELTA HAYNES

Miss Delta Haynes won last Thursday afternoon the finals in the young womens tennis tournament from Miss Sara Smith. Miss Haynes has challenged Miss Louise Hulley who won last year's tournament and hence holds the school championship. The match will be played off at an early date.

For the first time in years the Sophomores have succeeded in defeating the Freshmen in the annual class baseball game between the two rival classes. At the beginning of the ninth the Freshies were in the lead 7-4. But the Sophs got out their war clubs and tied the score. In the first half of the tenth, the Freshmen scored once. In their half the Sophs sent two runs across the pan taking the game.

The first two innings went by without any scores or hits. But in the third, after Jones fanned, Bogart took first on Gardiner's error and Roseboro reached the initial sack on Browns boot. Roy Scovil was tossed out by Gardiner. With two down the Freshies got busy. Conn singled scoring Bogart. C. Scovil doubled scoring Roseboro and Conn. Hon blazed out a long hit and scored Scovil. Beatty was safe on Hale's wild peg to first, and Hon scored. Fenno struck out. Thus were five runs compiled.

The Sophs came back in their half when Williams singled and Bradley sent him home with a long double. Bates and Daniels went out and Gardiner walked. Bradley scored on Hale's fly. In the fifth the Freshmen found another tally when Hon doubled scoring C. Scovil, who had forced R. Scovil.

In the seventh the Sophomores found two more runs on errors by the Freshman infield. In the eighth the Freshmen tallied once on singles by Jones and Hulley, who was playing for Bogart. They went into the ninth with a lead of three runs and did not score. But the Sophs started a rally which was really exciting. It wasn't much of a hitting rally at that. But some heavy rooting and a couple of boneheads and errors by the Rats helped immensely. Bradley drew a pass. Bates fanned. Daniels hit safely scoring Bradley. Gardiner took first on Beatty's error, but was forced by Hale. Beatty got mixed up on Peterson's liner and Daniels and Hale tallied, tying the score. Brown was hit by the pitcher but Winner was called out on strikes and the inning was over.

In the tenth, Bates dropped Beatty's fly and he scored later on; a bonehead piece of Sophomore work. This was all the Freshies could find as Fenno, Jones, and Hulley went out in order.

Then the Sophs tried to slip one over on the Rats by skipping Williams and starting off with Bradley. This bluff, however, was called, and Williams was tossed out. Bradley, not to be outdone, managed to project his cor-porosity into the path of Roseborough's "lob" and took first thereby. Bates struck out. With two down it began to look like a Freshman victory. But Dug weakened in the pinch and walked Daniels and Gardiner. Bradley tied the score again when the rats went up in the air. Hale sent an easy fly to Conn, but in his excitement Donald dropped it and Daniels crossed the pan and the game was over.

The game was a good one in spite of the errors and boneheads which as usual mark the class games. The crowd was large and a good deal of rooting was indulged in for both sides.

USE FOR WATER HYACINTHThis Plague of Rivers Makes Good Rope, Cloth and Fuel.

Consul Lawrence P. Briggs, who is stationed at Saigon, Coch-China, tells of some interesting experiments toward the commercial employment of water hyacinth.

"During the last four or five years," he says, "experiments have been carried on in the southern part of French Indo-China for the purpose of turning to some profit the water hyacinth, which in-cumbers the lower Mekong and other waters of Cochinchina and Cambodia to such a degree that it has become a positive menace to navigation. The most extensive and successful of these experiments have been conducted in the Central Prison at Phompehn, Cambodia, under the supervision of the director, M. Perrot. Here the fibre produced by the plant has been used in the manufacture of rope twine, matting, paddy sacks, boxes, and chairs. Sofas, cradles and other articles of furniture. It has been mixed with silk to form a somewhat stiff but durable cloth.

"As soon as the plant is gathered it is stripped of its leaves and passed through a fibre crusher until the fibre is completely separated from the pulp. The fibre is then gradually dried in the shade. When carefully treated it is strong, flexible and elastic. Rope, textiles and furniture made of it, when treated with carbolineum become impervious to the ravages of the weather or of the white ants and insects, so damaging to furniture in this locality. Tests show that a twine of this fibre having a diameter of 0.19685 of an inch and a length of 3.48 feet, will support a weight of 108.02 pounds, with a consequent prolongation of 3.937 inches."

Mr. Briggs also tells that hyacynth briquets equal coal as fuel.
They can be marketed at about $6, gold, per ton.
